

The Arquives, Canada's LGBTQ2+ Archives.

Judge Charles and Clayton Ruby. Drawing.

<https://collections.arquives.ca/en/permalink/artifacts9349>

Collection: Artworks
Date: July 15, 1981
Primary Object Term: Drawing
Artist or Maker: JAC

Description:

Left side of page is a depiction of Judge Charles' profile. The right side of the page has a lined drawing of Clayton Ruby, who faces to the left. Signed in back by Alex Liros.

Narrative: Sketch of the Barracks trial.
Medium: Ink on paper
Dimension Notes: Unframed dimensions: 22.5 x 30 cm
Catalogue Number: 70W

Notes:

Came with a typed note from John Grube, dated April 10, 1982. He writes that, if published, the drawings should be collectively credited to Clarence Barnes, John Grube, and Alex Liros, the members of GAI (Gay Art Involvement).

There is also a handwritten note, signed by Rick Bebout, and dated December 16, 1982, indicating that the archives should file the drawings under JAC (for John, Alex, and Clarence).

Condition: Good
Current Location: M.C. 4.19 Folder 4
Description Level: Item
Accession Number: 1986-032

Images

