

The Arquivos, Canada's LGBTQ2+ Archives.

Archives for maintaining community and society in the digital age

<https://collections.arquivos.ca/en/permalink/catalogue22970>

Collection: Monographs
Editor: Fujiyoshi, Keiji
Responsibility: Edited by Keiji Fujiyoshi
Place: Wakayama, Japan
Publisher: Koyasan University
Date Published: 2013
Physical Description: v, 124 p.
Condition: Excellent
Language: English

Notes:

Research Project comprehensive study on the relationship between society and archives based on international comparison. Research Project Number: 22330164 supported by the Japan Society for Promotion of Science (KAKENHI).

TableOfContents:	Preface
	Acknowledgments
	Chapter 1, Keiji Fujiyoshi- Archives for Maintaining Community and Society in the Digital Age, An Introductory Essay
	Chapter 2, Junta Okada- Archives in Parliament: Democratic Role of the Japanese National Diet Library
	Chapter 3, Tadaaki Fujitani- Citizen Archives and Accountability: Changing Organizations and Reconstruction of Archives
	Chapter 4, Vrunda Pathare- Business Archives: Collective Memory and Selective Approach
	Chapter 5, Kazuhito Isomura- Search for Missing Links Between Records Management and Business Administration
	Chapter 6, Sungman Koh- Transitional Justice Strategies for the National State and its Archivization: A Study in Liquidation of the Past History of the Jeju April 3 Events
	Chapter 7, Anne Gilliland, Andrew J. Lau, and Sue McKemmish- Pluralizing the Archive
	Chapter 8, Izumi Hirano- Runners in an "Endless Relay": A Brief Custodial History of the Archives of a Residents' Movement in Japan
	Chapter 9, Lakatos Artur-Lorand- Current Situation of Ecclesiastical Archives in Transylvania, Romania: Legal Situation and Political Debates
	Chapter 10, Nanako Hayami- Regulation of the Female Body in Japanese Society and its Transformation through Globalization: From Reigi-saho to Image Control
	Chapter 11, Natalia Canto Mila- Simmel in the Archive: On the Conflict of late Modern Culture
	Appendix
	Contributors
Call Number:	9.4 FUJ ARC 2013
Description Level:	Item
Accession Number:	2018-084