

The Arquives, Canada's LGBTQ2+ Archives.

100 Years of the Gay Rights Movement in Germany

<https://collections.arquives.ca/en/permalink/catalogue23831>

Collection: Monographs

Material Type: Exhibition catalogue

Author: Herrn, Rainer

Place: New York, NY

Publisher: Goethe-Institut

Date Published: [1997]

Physical Description: 60p., 6x9 inches, illustrated with b&w reproductions of materials from the exhibition, stapled pictorial wraps.

Language: English

Notes:

"Representation of the lesbian movement is touched upon only in as far as it coincides with the movement of homosexual men. The lesbian movement is characterized by other forms of criminalization of female homosexuality and discrimination against women. Closer to the women's movement from the beginning, it must be contextualized within feminist discourse. For this reason, the lesbian movement requires a separate presentation."

Call Number: M2020-001

Description Level: Item

Accession Number: 2019-110