History /

Biographical:

Gays and Lesbians Against the Right Everywhere (G.L.A.R.E.), a group of gay men and feminist lesbians in the early to mid 1980s organizing and participating in efforts for gay and lesbian rights, most materials and events relate to fighting the right-wing group "Positive Parents of Ontario".

Scope and Content:

Records from the G.L.A.R.E. organization, consisting of minutes, financial documents, correspondence, discussion papers, questionnaires, handouts and flyers, newspaper clippings, briefs addressing the Toronto City Council, as well as hate literature that was distributed by "Positive Parents of Ontario". The records begin at the start of 1981, with the most recent record dating mid-1985. The questionnaires were endorsed/distributed by the groups Lesbians Against the Right (L.A.R.) and Right to Privacy Committee (R.T.P.C.), involving the 1982 city elections, and also contain the responses.

Notes:

Received directly from G.L.A.R.E. organizing members.
